Dear Hiring Team,

I am writing to express my interest in joining your organisation as an English teacher, translator or interpreter. I am a Mozambican professional with over four years of experience delivering structured English lessons, currently completing a Bachelor's Degree in Translation and Interpretation (English–Portuguese) at Eduardo Mondlane University.

At Consultoria Linguística e Coaching Isac (CLCI), I design lesson plans, exercises and assessments aligned with clear learning objectives and teach adult learners across Levels 1–4, adapting my pace and methods to each group's needs. This experience in structured delivery, learner assessment and progress tracking is complemented by my university training in translation theory, methodology and practice, and by my work in technical and academic translation between English and Portuguese, always with a focus on clarity, accuracy and cultural fit.

I am also the founder and manager of English With Sebastian / EnglishFlow, a digital English-learning platform where I create structured lesson content and use digital and AI tools to support learning. I have further developed my skills through certifications from OPEN MOOCs (U.S. Department of State / FHI 360), EY and Microsoft, Vodacom Group and HP LIFE, covering English for career development and business, and applied artificial intelligence.

I am fluent in English and Portuguese, well organised, patient, and comfortable adapting my approach across levels, audiences and formats. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to your team. My CV is attached, and I am glad to provide proof of my academic and professional qualifications on request.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Sebastião Zefanias Nhamuneque Júnior
